

E-mail your best fishing photos to The Fisherman Magazine fgolofaro@thefisherman.com

MOBY STRIPERS SETTLED INTO MONTAUK RIPS

Terry Nee was fishing with Sam Gershowitz, owner of Star Island Yacht Club, aboard Sam's Lil Marlena when he connected with this 56.80-pound striper. The big cow was taken on live bait on June 21. Montauk's rips are well-stocked with big bass and blues now. Check out this week's reports for an update on the action.

- SEA BASS TO SIX POUNDS ON SOUTH SHORE REEFS
- 60.10 AND 58.30-POUND STRIPERS WEIGHED AT STAR ISLAND
- SOLID FLUKING REPORTED FROM MANY AREAS
- BASS AND BLUES FEASTING ON BUNKER IN WESTERN SOUND
- PORGY FISHING STAYS HOT IN SOUND, PECONICS AND MONTAUK
- CRABS AND BLOWFISH ENTERTAINING PIER CROWD